How will this Information be used?

Authorised persons within the administration of LSC will process this information to communicate, promote and manage its activities, collect annual subscriptions and for general administration. If you choose to belong to a section of LSC (Bowls, Archery, Football etc.), authorised members of the section administration will also process your information to carry on similar actions at section level.

Note that the LSC will ensure:

- Your information will be processed fairly and legally.
- If for some specific purpose further personal data is required, it will not be collected without notification and terms of use.
- Sensitive personal data (as defined in the data protection regulation) about you will not be collected or processed by LSC without your explicit written consent.

Who do we share your data with?

With the following exceptions, LSC will not share your data with any third party:

- There is specific written consent by you
- It is necessary for the day to day administration of the member's database. This is protected by a legally binding non-disclosure agreement.

International

If an event arises requiring your data be sent by LSC beyond the UK, then it will only be by your permission or legal scrutiny.

How long will we keep your data?

Your data will remain on the database for as long as you are a member. When you leave your data will cease to have any further entries except for any reason for leaving.

What rights do you have?

- You have the right to see the personal data that is held about you and have a copy provided to you or someone else on your behalf, in an electronic format and at no cost.
- If you believe your personal data we hold is inaccurate, you can ask to have it corrected.
- Where you have given consent for LSC to process your personal data, you can withdraw that consent at any time.
- You can request your personal data be deleted.
